

Choose your favorite stars. Decorate and cut out 4 different squares. Glue or tape each star to one side of a standard size square tissue box and create your own special Star Keeper. Note to Grownups: you can use the Star Keeper box as a way to rate behavior. If your child is making good choices, show the shining bright star. If they are making poor choices, consider the angry or disappointed star.

